517 One of John Brown's daggers used in his raid on Harper's Ferry to liberate and excite the slaves of Virginia into insurrection. A rude piece of work, made by an ordinary blacksmith, 15½ inches long, weight 31 ounces. An extremely rare historical relic. Much rarer than the pikes or spears, pikes were taken to Va. by Brown and his men to be placed into the hands of the Negroes, but these knives or daggers were only carried by the men who accompanied Brown. A sworn certificate of genuineness given if necessary.

☞N. B.—Coins are so much on each piece. Postage Stamps so much for each lot.
